Mr. Roy W. Howard

Dear Roy:

My best wishes to you as the editorial chores that have made you world-known during the past 58 years are lightened.

You have been an honest and fair crusader, in the public interest, from your days as a reporter on the INDIANAPOLIS NEWS to your leadership of the NEW YORK WORLD-TELEGRAM AND SUN.

As you pass on the editorship of the WORLD TELEGRAM AND SUN to the able Lee Wood, I join your multitude of friends who salute a 77-year old youngster who reached the top of his profession by sheer merit.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
